Constitution of the Sons of Confederate Veterans

PREAMBLE

In the name of a reunited country, the Sons of Confederate Veterans declare the following purposes: Allegiance to the Constitution of the United States of America, largely written and expounded by Southern men, the very Magna Carta of our liberties; a strict construction of all sections conferring power upon the Federal Government and the implied and understood reservations to the States arising therefrom and a general attitude of opposition to further amendment thereof. We adhere to the principles of the Great Charter of England granted at Runnymede, A.D.1215, and the Anglo-Saxon rights and personal liberties transmitted to us thereunder; to associate in one united, compact body all men of Confederate ancestry and to cultivate, perpetuate and sanctify the ties of fraternity and friendship entailed thereby; to aid and encourage the recording and teaching with impartiality of all Southern history and achievement from Jamestown to this present era, seeing to it especially that the events of the War for Southern Independence are authentically and clearly written and that all documents, relics and mementos produced and handed down by the active participants therein are properly treasured and preserved for posterity; to comfort, succor and assist needy sons of Confederate veterans, their wives, widows and orphans; to urge, aid and assist in the erection of suitable and enduring monuments and memorials to all Southern valor, military and civil, wherever done and wherever found, particularly stressing that of our heroic Confederate ancestors who, by their sacrifice, perpetuated unto us and our descendants that glorious heritage of valor, chivalry and honor which we now hold and venerate; and to instill in our descendants a devotion to and reverence for the principles represented by the Confederate States of America, to the glory of God and the honorable memory of our fathers who fought in that Cause.

Therefore, we, the Sons of Confederate Veterans, commit to insure that the aforementioned impartial Southern history will be taught to each generation, current and future, in accordance with the “Charge” given to the Sons of Confederate Veterans by Lt. Gen. Stephen Dill Lee, Commander General of the United Confederate Veterans, in his speech at the 16th Annual Meeting and Reunion of the United Confederate Veterans held in New Orleans, Louisiana on April 25, 1906.

“To you, Sons of Confederate Veterans, we will commit the vindication of the cause for which we fought. To your strength will be given the defense of the Confederate soldiers’ good name, the guardianship of his history, the emulation of his virtues, the perpetuation of those principles which he loved and which you love also and to those ideals which made him glorious, and which you also cherish.”

This will be the mission statement for all current and future members of the Sons of Confederate Veterans organization, as defined within this Constitution.

Therefore, we, the representatives of the Camps, in Convention, do adopt, ordain and establish this Constitution, which was first adopted, ordained and established in Richmond, Virginia on the first day of July 1896:

- 8.10. Special Conventions must be called for a specific purpose and may only consider business specifically described in the call to convention.
- 8.11. The Commander-in-Chief shall convene the Camps in a Special Convention upon the written petition of two-thirds (2/3) of the General Executive Council, by one-third (1/3) of the Camps in good standing, or of five percent (5%) of the actual membership of the Confederation. - 8.12. Such Special Convention petitions shall specify the reasons necessitating such a meeting, the specific purposes for which the meeting is called, and a suggested time and place of the meeting. After receiving a sufficient number of qualified petitions, the Commander-in-Chief must call the Camps into Special Convention at a reasonable time and place of his choosing within sixty (60) days.

If the Camp remains in arrearage for a total of six consecutive months, it shall be automatically suspended from all privileges of the Confederation. If the Camp shall remain in arrearage for an additional two (2) consecutive years, its charter may be revoked by the General Executive Council, provided always that a suspended Camp may be reinstated upon the payment to the General Headquarters of the current per capita dues and required fees. They may subdivide themselves to hear particular cases so long as the sub-committee is composed of not less than three members. Sub-committees shall have the full force and effect of the whole committee.
- 13.3. Standing. Charges proffered by a Camp or Division must be against one of its own members. The General Executive Council or the Convention may proffer charges against any member. Charges may not be proffered by any individual.
- 13.4. Procedure. Charges shall be proffered in writing to the Commander-in-Chief who shall promptly refer the matter to the Disciplinary Committee. The accused shall be presented a copy of the charges and invited to provide a timely response. The Committee or sub-committee may conduct additional inquiries as necessary. A two-thirds majority shall be necessary to decide any question of guilt.
- 13.5. Venue. The Committee or Subcommittee shall meet in person at General Headquarters or other announced meeting place of the General Executive Council to hear testimony, receive investigative reports, receive other information, and deliberate and vote on the question. The Committee or Subcommittee may meet via teleconference. All proceedings shall be in executive session.
- 13.6. Report. After the conclusion of its business, the committee or sub-committee shall report to the Commander-in-Chief their findings, which he shall disseminate to the General Executive Council. If the committee or sub-committee makes a finding of guilty, the accused shall be promptly notified by the Commander-in-Chief using U.S. Mail or private carrier, which provides proof of delivery. shall be ordered for hearing before the General Executive Council in a timely manner. The General Executive Council may decide whether or not to hear the appeal; a majority shall be necessary to uphold the decision of the Disciplinary Committee. The General Executive Council may remand the case to the Committee for reconsideration. The accused shall be notified of the decision of the General Executive Council by U.S. Mail or private carrier, which provides proof of delivery.

13.8. Imposing Punishment. The Commander-in-Chief shall direct that punishment be imposed if any of the following conditions occur:

13.8.1. The decision of the Disciplinary Committee is upheld by the General Executive Council.

13.8.2. The guilty verdict of the Disciplinary Committee is upheld by the General Executive Council, but a lesser punishment is ordered.

13.8.3. The General Executive Council declines to hear the appeal.

13.8.4. The accused declines his right of appeal.

13.8.5. The time limit for submitting a request for an appellate hearing expires. The accused shall be notified in writing of the punishment to be imposed.

13.12. Convention. Any decision by a Convention to censure a member shall be final.

13.13. Discipline: Camps and Divisions, being the judges of their own members, may impose discipline upon their own members. Camps or Divisions may suspend or expel a member from their respective Camp or Division. At this point the member in question is transferred to HQ Camp 584, being that he is no longer a member in good standing of either the Division or a Camp within that Division. If the Camp or

- Division wishes to have the member expelled from the Confederation, they shall proffer charges to the Commander-in-Chief within 30 days of the dispensation of the Camp or Division's action. A violation of the suspension meted out by a camp or division shall, for purposes of calculating the 30 days, be considered a new violation, the 30 days beginning with the dispensation of the Camp's or Division's actions on the violation of the suspension, not the original infraction which led to the suspension. If a camp disciplines a member and proffers charges on the incident with its division (within the time prescribed by the division bylaws, or 30 days if no such time is prescribed), then the matter shall no be considered dispensed, for purposes of calculating the 30 days above, until the conclusion of the division's adjudication. At the point the charges are proffered to the Commander-in-Chief, the procedures are as described elsewhere in this article. If the member is not expelled from the Confederation at the culmination of these actions, he may petition the Disciplinary Committee for the right to transfer to a Camp different from whence he came. If this petition is denied, he may appeal to the GEC.
- 13.14. Camp Suspensions. Suspension of the charter of a Camp shall not affect the membership in the Sons of Confederate Veterans of Compatriots of such Camp, nor impair their tenure of office or eligibility as officers therein during such suspension.
- 13.15. The General Executive Council shall promptly suspend or revoke the charter of any Camp, which fails to meet the obligations imposed upon it by this Constitution and Standing Orders, or commits an act repugnant to this Constitution and Standing Orders or detrimental to the objects and purposes of the Confederation.
- 13.16. Reinstatement for suspension shall take effect immediately upon receipt by the Commander-in-Chief of evidence of the removal by the suspended Camp of its cause of suspension
- 13.17. During the interim between General Conventions, the Commander-in-Chief shall have the power to suspend the charter of any Camp or Division and suspend any officer from his office for conduct detrimental to the Confederation upon proper proof; said action to be reported to the next regular meeting of the General Executive Council for approval and thence to the next General Convention for final

- dispensation. Any Camp, Division, or officer so suspended shall have the right to appear before the General Executive Council.
- 13.18. Any Camp or Division whose charter has been suspended or revoked shall not be entitled to any rights and privileges of the Confederation. The Commander-in-Chief is charged with the duty of working with the Camp or Division or officer to remove the factors that necessitated the suspension.
- 13.19. Upon the failure of any Department, Division or Camp Commander, whether elected or appointed, to send in the required reports without reasons satisfactory to the Commander-in-Chief, said officer shall stand suspended, and the office shall be thereby vacant, and such vacancy shall be promptly filled as provided for herein.
- 13.20. The General Executive Council, after notice and a hearing, may suspend or revoke the charter of a Division, which violates this Constitution and Standing Orders, and may provide for the government and administration of such Division during such suspension or upon such revocation.

14.2.3. Nothing contained in Section 14.2.1 or 14.2.2 shall be construed to affect the legal transfer of title to real property, owned by a Camp or Division in dissolution, wherein the original deed or bestowal document to such real property designates a successor of, or reverted to, an entity other than the Sons of Confederate Veterans (as in the case of Mississippi Divisions ownership of Beauvoir with title passing to the State of Mississippi upon the Division's dissolution).

15. INDEMNIFICATION

15.1. Members of the General Executive Council, employees, and authorized agents of the Sons of Confederate Veterans shall be indemnified for costs, expenses, or liabilities necessarily incurred in connection with the defense of any action, suit, or proceeding in which they are made a part by reason of being or having been a member serving in an elected or an appointed capacity. No member or employee shall be indemnified when adjudged in the action or suit to be liable for gross negligence or misconduct in the performance of duty.
