Remarks:

The 10th Regiment South Carolina Infantry was organized for State service and most of the companies were accepted into the service of the Confederate States in August, 1861, for twelve months, but some appear to have been disbanded and others were added at various times until the regiment was finally composed of twelve companies. It was re-organized for the war in May, 1862, and temporarily consolidated with the 19th Regiment South Carolina Infantry about January 1, 1863, this regiment forming six companies of the consolidated organization but each company of the original regiments was mustered separately. The 10th and the 19th Regiments South Carolina Infantry were again consolidated about April 30, 1865, and formed the South Carolina Battalion of Infantry (Walker's), the men of this regiment being finally paroled May 1, 1865, at Greensboro, N. C., as Companies A and B of that battalion.
