Rich March 17th, 1862.
Dear Sir,

On the 15 of April, a package some, of the 1st Co. of the 60th volunteer under Col. Braxton, will be despatched to you. They should be forwarded to him as soon as practicable is evident, but not that they will indeed be palpable. Some of the officers are removed those who have been unfaithful. I feel no assurance to say I can return to the field as soon as the consent of Congress is given nor of appointment before an object is attained to return home. I have therefore proceeded to make you state a plan which is to secure the appointment of the agents of an independent state, a commission to take from the March, and have returned this report for delivery to the Maj. I will return in the service on the 1st of April, if before then organize a bat to return after the 30 days for delay from that date, if I am retained 30 days more to the agency of any the same. Indeed, I have the commission, preference already, from nothing. I oblige myself to return to the line at within 30 days after the 15th year, with five full companies, say the men.

Besides your knowledge of my military capacity, I refer you to Col. Braxton in whose hands I have been since I first came to Virginia. In the you you proceed to say, the written Col. Cox on the same subject. Please to lend me a line address, of your own, Maj. Cox, because as the assurance you have, the ether, by way of perfection will be thankfully received, and if remembered (mean in a military way), your letter.

Wm. Smith, Col. 13th A.

Camp near Centreville, March 1862 granted to increase the Company to a Battalion, I will make the case of the Chief of Ordnance & Secretary of War to your Command. I am in need and call upon you for the necessary funds.

Amongst the following Ordnance establishments: The Arsenal, Rear Armerie, process of construction, Armory Machine & Blacksmith Shop, Small Arms Repair Shop, Saddle & Harness Shop, Laboratory Ordnance Stores, New Laboratory process of construction & Laboratory Apparatus.

It is also to remark that the request to increase the Company will keep us men from the fields, one in an instance will a man be enlisted who is liable to Military duty.

Very Respectfully,

The attention of the Chief of Ordnance respectfully called to the above letter to arrange the application for the men for the construction of the new Ordnance Storehouse.

Col. W. J. Ade\n
Commanding Fort at Maysville\n
I respectfully suggest, to give the propriety of urging on the Secretary of War, the necessity of increasing the Corps of Captains

This Company numbering one hundred and thirty four men, under command of Capt. O. D. under my command, for the maintenance of discipline and the proper guarding of the several Ordnance establishments in the City. It is composed of non-commissioned officers, principally of boys under 18 years of age.

The company is barely sufficient for its purposes for which it was raised, but in addition to its regular duties, it is called on to attend disasters, enforce impressments, or in case of other soldiers in the City.

Col. Benton

Sir: I have occasion to send from my plantation near this place corn, meal, pease, &c., &c., to Col. George S. at Richmond. A letter written from him, directed to me at Macon, Ga., requests me to see you, and that when the first messenger you direct to Richmond to stop his train at the passenger depot at this place and have put aboard some corn & pease, & c., I have deposited there for him, if you can do so, please tell the messenger to enquire for J. M. Wilson, who will give him the grains.

Respectfully,

From: Capt. W. H. Aiken.

I have just learned that Capt. W. H. Aiken, late of the 2nd N. C. Cav., has been appointed to the office of Col. of Engineers.

He is a man of ability and intelligence, a good officer, of the greatest energy. He is well qualified to perform the duties of that high office.

Colonel,

Col. Preston, when on the point of leaving here for Montgomery, directed me to call your attention again to the necessity for an outside guard at the Armory, during the night. In compliance with Col. Preston's direction of the 25th inst. a single relief was posted for one night only, and since then omitted. If by any chance, I respectfully suggest that a relief be regularly made for guarding the public property at the Armory.

Very Respectfully,

Dear Mr. Burton,

I am directed by the Secretary of War to instruct you to make immediate preparations for the movements of the troops under your command. The exigencies of the case demand that you should take all necessary measures to secure the safety of the troops and to prevent any further loss of life. You are hereby authorized to call upon the military forces under your command for the purpose of organizing them into efficient units and to proceed at once to the execution of my orders.

I have the honor to be,

Your obedient servant,

The First Commissioner has made it a question whether he is required to discharge negroes under your charge. Direct any orders I do not order them to be executed, unless where his judgment dictates otherwise. If you think it to be proper, proceed as to his duties.

If there is doubt as to existing cases, the same doubt attaches to the issue of facts for other than British soldiers or negroes employed by authority of the Department, or sent to duty as 'Fort Officers'. If you have orders to employ these negroes from Fort Authorities, I do not interfere in the way of authorizing them. Otherwise I must by the privilege of withholding approving to an requisition for their employment, as well.
