The 10th (also called Arkansas) Regiment Texas Infantry was organized in October, 1861, with eight companies, A to H, filling the quota of the 10th holds of Arkansas. Companies I and K were organized later. Most of the members of this regiment were captured at Arkansas Post, Ark., January 11, 1863, and exchanged in April, 1863, east of the Mississippi River where they formed the 1st Texas Infantry. The remaining members of the 8th Regiment Texas Infantry and the 9th Regiment Texas Cavalry. They were broken on in March, 1864, and each company of this organization was organized separately and under its original designation during the entire period. The regiment was not reorganized or reassembled, the 8th and 9th Texas Infantry and 7th Texas Cavalry were formed by the consolidation of 9th and 10th Texas Infantry and 8th Texas Cavalry. They fought at Carnes, N. C., about May 1, 1863.

The part of the regiment which was not captured at Arkansas Post, and some of the supernumerary officers, were found in the subsequent records of the 7th Consolidated Regiment, 7th Texas, and in other organizations in the Texas Military Department.

The 10th (also called Nelson's) Regiment Texas Infantry was organized at Columbus, Miss., with militia companies K and L, which had been mustered into service on various dates from October 12 to 31, 1861. Companies I and B were mustered into service January 12 and 13, 1862. Most of the companies of the Regiment were captured at Vicksburg, La., January 17, 1862, when the regiment was scattered. These companies were temporarily consolidated in May, 1862, with similar companies in the 5th regiment Texas Infantry, and the 5th Regiment Texas Cavalry. The consolidation was broken up in March, 1862, and each company of the organization was mustered under the name of the company to which it was attached.

A total of 1,935 men of the regiment, which was formed by the consolidation of Governor's Texas Brigade and was mustered at Vicksburg.

N. C. on May 1, 1862.

That part of the regiment which was not captured at Vicksburg is now commanded by Maj. J. A. Mabry, 5th Regi-mont, and is known as the 17th Mississippi Infantry.

The 10th (also called Nelson's) Regiment Texas Infantry was organized in October, 1861, with eight companies, A to H, which were mustered in for two years service on November 12 to 23, 1861.
Companies I and K were mustered into service January 18 and 20, 1862, respectively. None of the members of the regiment were captured at Arkansas Post, Ark., January 11, 1863, and exchanged in April, 1863, et of the Mississippi River where they were subsequently consolidated with the 6th Regiment Texas Infantry and the 5th Regiment Texas Cavalry. This regiment was broken up in March, 1864, and each company of the organization was mustered separate and under its original designation during that entire period.

About April, 1863, this regiment became Companies D and F of the regiment which was formed by the organization of the 6th Regiment Mississippi Infantry at Corinth, Mississippi N. C., about May 1, 1863.

That part of the regiment which was not captured at Arkansas
